One People Provides Free American Flag Sets for DASH LaGrange Homes

LAGRANGE, Georgia (December 3, 2021) – One People Flags, Inc., a nonprofit organization that provides free American flag sets for display on homes in order to help unite our communities, has given away free flag sets to residents in DASH LaGrange homes. DASH LaGrange was formed in 2002, and the founder of One People, J. Hillyer Jennings, is a LaGrange native.

DASH LaGrange provides dependable, affordable, sustainable housing to those who need it, particularly in the Hillside neighborhood of LaGrange. Nate Crawford, the Executive Director of DASH, Sam Craig, the Director of Development of DASH, and Mr. Jennings, the founder and Executive Director of One People, personally installed the flags for DASH residents who requested a free flag from One People.

Mr. Jennings, an attorney at King & Spalding LLP, founded One People earlier this year with a simple mission to provide free U.S. flag sets to as many homeowners/residents as possible who might not otherwise have a flag. Mr. Jennings said, “At a time when our country is particularly divided, One People wants to provide a sense of togetherness, belonging and community. I love LaGrange, and it means so much to be able to give back to this city in some small way. We are honored to be partnering with DASH, which has been doing fantastic work here for almost two decades.”

“When Hillyer first reached out to us at DASH with this idea and explained One People’s unification mission, it was a no-brainer to offer the free flags to DASH residents,” said Mr. Crawford, who first joined DASH in 2018. “We could see and hear the excitement from the residents today as we installed the flags, and the flags look great.”

The Hillside neighborhood certainly has a new look with the red, white and blue accenting many of the DASH residences in a beautiful scene. The American Dream may take a different shape for every single American, but Old Glory is a great reminder of how Americans are always stronger together.
